4. Your Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into an insurance contract, You have a duty to tell Us anything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, which may affect Our decision to insure You and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure You. You have the same duty before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell Us anything that:

- reduces the risk We insure You for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- We know or should know as an insurer; or
- We waive Your duty to tell Us about.

You must tell us if any of the following circumstances change:

- Your business name, address, occupation or activities
- Your turnover
- Number and type of employees, subcontractors and labour hire workers engaged
- Your business has more than one instance of commercial bankruptcy, administration, liquidation, receivership or insolvency
- You or Your employees' criminal history
- Your details on the Policy Schedule are no longer accurate or correct
- A claim or incident that could give rise to a claim under this type of insurance, that has not been previously notified to Us.

INTRODUCTION

What We will do when You contact Us

When You tell Us about any change in circumstances, an additional Excess, Premium or special condition may be applied to Your Policy. In some cases, to the extent permitted by law and subject to the extent of prejudice of Our interests, it may lead Us to reduce or refuse to pay a claim or it may mean We can no longer insure You and We may cancel Your Policy.

If You do not tell Us something

If You do not tell Us anything You are required to, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both. Our liability will be reduced by an amount that fairly represents the extent to which Our interests have been prejudiced as a result of Your failure to notify Us. If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

5. Cancelling Your Policy

You may cancel Your Policy by giving Us notice in writing. We will refund premium for each day of the unexpired Period of Insurance.

We may cancel Your Policy when the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) allows Us to. If We cancel Your Policy, We will refund the proportion of Your Premium for the unexpired Period of Insurance.

The daily premium will be calculated by dividing the premium by the number of days of the Period of Insurance. Some government taxes & duties are not refundable.

Where You represent more than one person or entity, We will only carry out this cancellation where a written notification to cancel is received from all parties named in Your Policy Schedule.

We may cancel only when the law allows Us to do so, and We will allow three business days' notice for You to seek alternative insurance or as otherwise required under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth).

INTRODUCTION

6. Costs

How the Premium is calculated

Your premium may be calculated using all or some of the following:

- The size of Your business and Your Gross Freight Earnings or turnover;
- The types of Cargo You carry or Your Business activities;
- Sum Insured and limit of liability
- The distance You travel from Your base of operations;
- Your claim/incident history and experience;
- Type of cover or extensions of cover chosen;

However, if We are unable to resolve Your dispute to Your satisfaction within 30 days, We will inform You of the reasons for the delay and that You can take Your dispute to Our EDR scheme, administered by the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA), even if We are still considering it (and provided Your dispute is within AFCA Terms of Reference). We are a member of AFCA which is an ASIC approved external dispute resolution scheme and it may be able to resolve Your dispute. You may be entitled to assistance from the AFCA, however this is subject to the claim circumstances and the AFCA eligibility criteria.

Before the end of that 30 day period We will inform You that You have this right and details of how to access Our EDR Scheme.

AFCA is responsible for monitoring compliance with the General Insurance Code of Practice. It is available to customers and third parties who fall within its Terms of Reference and is an impartial body that is completely independent of Us. AFCA will initially determine whether Your dispute falls within its Terms of Reference and will notify You whether it may proceed to review Your dispute.

Your dispute must be lodged with AFCA within two years of the date of Our final decision.

Where AFCA Terms of Reference do not extend to Your dispute We will advise You to seek independent legal advice or give You information about other external dispute resolution options, if any, that are available to You.
